

ERIK S. CHRISTMAN, P.E.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT:

2006 Engineering Ventures, Lebanon, NH - Senior Project Engineer

1988 to 2006 Bruno Associates, Inc., Woodstock, VT - Senior Engineer

Responsibilities included: working with clients, architects, state officials and contractors throughout an engineering project's design, permit, construction and commissioning phases; preparing environmental permit and construction plans for residential, commercial and municipal projects; reviewing projects under construction to insure compliance with the approved plans and specifications; conducting annual reviews of existing regulated wastewater and stormwater systems in accordance with State operational permits.

1987 to 1988 Connecticut Department of Transportation - Engineer Intern

Responsibilities included: representing the State on federally funded highway and bridge construction projects; overseeing construction activities to insure compliance to the contract and state construction guidelines; on-site material testing; documentation of construction activities, pay quantities and daily records.

Summer 1986 Vermont Agency of Transportation – Transportation Technician

Responsibilities included: assisting Resident Engineers on federally funded highway and bridge construction projects; inspecting construction materials and workmanship to insure specification compliance; testing of concrete at the project and plant sites.

EDUCATION:

1987 B.S. Civil Engineering – Norwich University, Northfield, Vermont

AFFILIATIONS:

American Society of Civil Engineers
American Water Works Association
Green Mountain Water Environment Association

PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATIONS:

Vermont New Hampshire Massachusetts

As well as:

- Class II Water System Operator (VT)
- Designer of Subsurface Sewage Disposal Systems (NH)
- Certified Professional in Erosion and Sediment Control (CPESC)